My First Crime

3rd day of December 2014

I'm going to tell you a little bit of my personal story; in case one day someone reads it, they will understand how hard the life of a prisoner is. My name is Anonymous.

One day everything started as a game, when I realized it was real because I fell in love with a person and when it happened I didn't take the age in consideration the age; and the age is what got me to prison. When the parents found out, they accused me even of things that I didn't do. They arrested me and because I don't know much of the law, I accepted the deal to get out soon without knowing that what I signed was my entrance to prison. It isn't good to leave your trust in people who aren't professionals, because they ruin your life and that's how my life took a 360-degree turn. I accepted everything I did and even what I didn't do, that showed me that everything in this life is valuable; your family, your children, the utensils you use to work, because it has a value in life. But of all things your freedom is and will be the best gift for every person. Life in prison is very hard, there is so much injustice, and only God can help you get out. I already realized of that, soon I will be out of my first mistake I committed since it was my first crime in my life.
