No longer silent,
I ain't never gonna shut up!
The devil keeps trying,
As he does with constant lieing,
But guess what,
I ain't never gonna shut up.

No matter what happens,
No matter what does go down,
Whatever is put in my way,
Or even when things get tough,
Guess what?
I am no longer silent, and
Still, I ain't never gonna shut up.

When we think we have,
All of what we deserve,
Burning and dieing,
Was there waiting on us,
Within lifes curve.

For when one sins,
It leads to death,
Magic words yet so perverse,
Ultimately causes what is needed,
Here on Gods green earth.

God sought to preserve us.
Sent Jesus to our rescue,
Yet the good news had bad,
They tried to kill his ass dead.

Though they heard the trumpets blow,
The powers that be said "no".
"He will never save your falls,"
"To allow this just won't work."
"We're the ones with balls."

"Not with what we are about,"
"To plummet, steal and kill."
"To the hell NO,"
"We won't let all this go!"

So they lied about him,
Even pounded nails in his hands,
Then they finally realized,
"He's not like any other man!"
"He is touched by Gods right hand!"

They still went on,
To tried to kill him anyway.
No matter what the word,
Or even what God had to say.

They the powers that be,
Pronounced him dead,
Dead he is they said,
Dead as can be, dead.
They buried and en-toumbed him,
Far far far out of sight.

But guess what,
No longer silent,
Still he rose again,
Before the proud moon.
Talk about coming back soon!

Now they were done,
Now they were through.
Yet now they try to tell us,
With their fingers in our eyes,
"Oh by the way,
That was just a ruse,
Only a disguise ya know,
Bbefore your very eyes.

No longer silent,
I ain't never gonna shut up!
The devil keeps trying,
As he does with constant lieing,
But guess what still,
I ain't never gonna shut up.

No matter what happens,
No matter what does go down,
Whatever is put in my way,
Or even when things get tough,
Guess what?
I am no longer silent,
And, I ain't never gonna shut up.

Never gonna shut up,
Never gonna shut up,
What did I say,
Oh yes,
I Ain't never gonna shut up.
