

"The Stress of This Place" Pt. 6

*Dealing with the stress of this place
Is like running a long, hard, losing race
All I have to look forward to is the next meal
Then hours of setting or laying on the cold steel
There are few alternatives other than that
And once again the state movie is straight whack
But there are all types of programs that seem unattractive
With some intramural sports mixed in to keep me active
But there are also many, many rules of all sorts
Waiting to find you guilty in D. R. court
With the CERT team always ready to administer some hurt
I'm detail ready but they refuse to let me work
And on top of that I still don't have a date
And on top of that I want to choke my roommate
So I guess I'm still in need of this system correction
But from 9:00 to 16:30 I'm ready for their inspections
And that's five days a week without any incentive
Except some hollow promises passed down by the dorm representative
So I might need something sharp to cut through the chase.....
Or at least to disconnect me from the stress of this place*
