A Message to the Incarcerated Muslim

I am sad today, for the Message I bring has been shouted through the halls and walls of these universities for years. "Say, You Believe in Allah and Stand firm on it."

I don't know that many of you know what this actually means. It appears that you have let your life of anger, deceit, distrust, hate, greed and lust for power, control and fame make you believe that you can change this life's game. The standard has been set by Allah (SWT) through His Speech (The Qur'an) and His human example of His Truth, the Prophet Muhammad Ibn Abdullah, the best example of a man. We need to cut the crap and stop making excuses and falling into the same satanic trap.

We have been told that the Religion is based on "intentions" and that every man shall receive what he intends." Then look around you my brothers at your life and the example we see in those who proclaim they possess the truth and the light! It is said that the truth shall set you free. But I walk through the crud of your misery everyday and so much insincerity.

I see the games you play with your brothers' life; causing him all sorts of emotional strife while you sneak around fulfilling all of your lustful desires and corrupt vices. It's sad that you have chosen this road that will bring so much detriment to your soul.

You say you want to practice Islam, but you persist in demonstrating His-Lam. I see and feel your lust for control, power and position and your disdain for the truth when it is explained. You are walking around with these fake personas of toughness and roughness, but yet you whine, cry, complain and lack the courage to stand up with justice and righteousness for that which you proclaim. Take off these masks, my brothers and humble yourself to the Religion and the Lord you claim!

We can no longer continue to justify our weaknesses; we can no longer continue to directly and indirectly call Allah (SWT) a liar through the things we say and by practicing deeds that go against what we teach. We tell the world Islam is the best way of life for all humanity, but we continue to allow the corruption of the dunya (world) to dominate our thoughts and actions and follow all of life's insanities. We continue to intoxicate our souls with the love of money, music, drugs and illicit and sexual bonds and tides; while we seek power, control and the honor of men through manipulation, false promises and outright lies.

We have not humbled and completely submitted our egos, hearts and minds to the one who we proclaimed to have created "the Heavens and Earth and everything between them." We are playing games with our lives and souls like a person hanging over a fierce and blazing fire on a broken tree limb. I warn you my brothers from the deepest part of my heart; the only game being played is the one you're playing with yourself. The Lord, whom I serve, is the Al-A'lim (All-Knowing), Al-Baseer (All-Seeing), As-Sami (All-Hearing), Al-Hakim (Most Wise) and there is nothing that slips by Him. He definitely has an account of what you do. In truth, you are the enemy within!

It is my advice to you to make Taubah (Seek Repentance), for your evil and deceptive intent and change your ways before the Death Angel is sent. It is my advice that you stop hindering men from understanding the beauty and truth of this deen, by your ugliness in speech, actions and deeds. It is my advice my brothers that you really get real with loving yourself and submit yourself wholeheartedly to this truth, so that you can experience the fullness of this truth and show your family and friends that this religion is the real deal. It is my advice to you to be thankful and grateful that you have been blessed to walk through Islam's door, before it's too late for you and death end your opportunity with a severe punishment that I know that you cannot endure.

It is my advice to stop being so ungrateful, rebellious and foul in your behavior and speech, because one day the one you rejected you are going to meet. If you really love yourself and your family then take advantage of the mercy and the love given to you and your family; by entering into Islam wholeheartedly. The promise is for those who live a life of obedience and sincerity; that they can reap the benefits of this truth's reality. It is only Allah, The Most High who can grant a blessed life in this life and eternity.

It is my advice to you that no matter what you think about this Religion, it is true, the Hellfire is true, the Paradise is true and all of Allah's promises are true. The only thing that will save you is that you get rid of the corruption, deceit, lies, hate, insincerity, selfishness and rebellion and bitterness in You.

Let us be the ones that set a better example of this truth, don't you realize you are the mercy sent to your family to establish the Islamic roots. Stand firm on this Truth firmly in your heart and soul with everything. Stop creating and miscommunicating through your actions that Islam is only a "Jailhouse thing"; stand firm with courage, faith and trust in Allah (SWT) power and authority over creation to provide your wants and needs; standing firmly until death comes on this blessed and wonderful life's creed.

We have to stop making all these excuses and be Muslim Men. Knowing that the Truth molds the best of men who sacrifice, believe and stand on the Truth to the end! So listen, O Believers, stop, resisting this truth and believing the lies of Shaitan and his lying Jinns.

If this truly is not your desire, my brothers, then get out of the way; this path is not for the weak and insincere but it's only for the one who sincerely love's Allah and is committed to die for Him and his truth everyday! But if you choose to be insincere, deceitful, rebellious and disloyal while you stay, then know soon you will answer for the mischief in your heart and the mischief you perpetrated in the land on Judgement Day!

I pray that you take heed to the warning and let us be brothers in Islam; unifying upon this Truth and stand firm as a Muslim Man! May Allah continue to bestowed His Mercy, Grace, Forgiveness, Love, Peace and Guidance upon you and give all of us the Courage and Strength to establish Islam in ourselves and in the land.

I leave you with this from the Qur'an; Surah An-Nur (24): ayats 54-55:

"Say: Obey Allah and obey the Messenger. But if you turn away, he (Muhammad) is only responsible for the duty place on him and you for that placed on you. If you obey him, you shall be on the right guidance. The Messenger's duty is only to convey (the message) in a clear way. Allah has promise those among you who believe and do righteous goods, that He will certainly grant them succession to (the present rulers) in the land, as He granted it to those before them, and that He will grant them the authority to practice their religion which he has chosen for them! (Islam) And He will surely give them in exchange a safe security after their fear (provided) they (believers) worship Me and do not associate anything in worship) with Me. But whoever disbelieved after this, they are the Fasiqun (rebellious, disobedient to Allah).

This is my message to the Incarcerated Muslim Man!

If I have said any thing good this is from Allah (SWT) and If I have said anything wrong or evil this is from myself and my own ignorance and may Allah forgive me.
