

by Bobby Bostic

Prisoners Lives Matter

People don't stop being humans when the offend society and commit crime
ON the contrary we loose some of our best citizens at their prime
In fact it is inside their cell that many prisoners rehabilitate themselves Coming out into society as reformed people having left the older version of their lives behind on prison shelves

Instead of breaking the fallen down we should pick them back up
Let them drink from the fountain of change till they do away with their hiccup
They did wrong and must be held responsible for their acts Recidivism is a blight on society and statistics prove these facts

It's not always the worse of the worse inside of prison
These are our fellow citizens who went astray and lost their vision
A prison number doesn't make them less of a human being
We all just have to guide their sight back to a civilized way of seeing

Drugs is play a main cause in their fall
Addicted to chemical substances under the influence of alcohol
Many were at their lowest common denominator when they became criminals
Therefore we must all stand up and mentor better choices for the millennials

We can't just lock up our citizens and throw away the key
The ultimate goals is to rehabilitate them so they can contribute to society
The world can't afford to only see incarcerated people through the lens of their past clutter and clatter Although we must never forget the victims of crime prisoners lives also matter