

I have always wanted to do something with my ability to relate my thoughts on all the books I have read. Let me explain when I came to prison 2012 the only book I ever read was the bible. I can't remember reading in school because I never like the subject. After about the 100th book I stopped reading novels and began to read nothing but auto, or self help books. As time passed I began to think about the people just like me who didn't read or the ones who only liked urban novels were the same future goes for every body. To me urban novels is a vain attempt to embellish the bad side of the game. I want to teach my brothers and sisters that they can prosper with out urban problem. In my neighborhood you had two choices: Dead or in Jail and every body reminded you of this. So with a predicted future already told to (us) why try to do anything different? Remember - to be different is to be an cool or weird to be caught with a book meant getting beat up. Society teaches us to use our fist, gun, knives instead of our brains, pens, papers. If I get to be an cool or weird to make it cool again then I will die just that way. we have no martin, malcom, Angela, its time for us to have a better solution because my kids deserve better than this.
