Utah Society & Corrections Effectively Teach Felons

We Teach Felons To:

1- Be responsible by taking away all their responsibilities.

2- Be Trustworthy by disbelieving most everything they say, except any self incriminating comments.

3- Be non violent by injustice, abuse of authority, and putting them where hostility surrounds them.

4- Be kind and loving by demeaning them & subjecting them to cruelty & Hatred.

5- Stop being a tough guy by Putting them where tough guys are most respected.

6- Stop exploiting others by exploiting inmates having medical needs, making phone calls to loved ones & their Purchasing of commissary, books & music CD's usually at higher than retail prices.

7- Be independant by making them reliant upon us & by incesstantly telling them what they can & cannot do & threating with write ups.

8- Be vital contributing members of society by labelling & isolating them.

9- Have a sense of self worth by breaking their spirit & destroying what's left of their self esteem.

10- Move forward by constantly reminding them of their past.

11- Be productive by depriving them of jobs & education opportunities.

12- Make better choices by making every decision for them.

13- Be rational in their thinking by often providing ridiculous answers illogical rules, Policies & procedures.

14- Be individuals by mass punishing & using a cookie cutter or "one size fits all" approach, especially towards inmates in any kind of treatement.

15- Be merciful by refusing to have compassion for them.

16- To have integrity by being less than honest about our motives & responses to their legitimate questions.

17- To get help for their problems by discounting or negating their feelings & punish them further from their confessions of "coming clean".

18- To be respectful by being rude & insolent towards them all, even those who've shown civility towards us.

19- To have a strong support group of good, productive & well-rounded citizens in the community by unnecessarily frustrating their visits, phone calls, mail, money, property, jobs, housing, etc. at every turn from anybody trying to be supportive.

20- To have realistic expectations & to be rational in their ~~thinking~~ thinking by enforcing illogical unreasonable rules, policies & procedures.

21- To stop their criminal behavior by oppressing them & subjecting them to a state of being or condition where, "The fox is guarding the hen house."

22- To make proper use of the established system by ruling ~~against~~ against them at every grievance & either taking away their privileges or moving them to a more restrictive living area to gain compliance.

23- To trust in the legal system by only giving justice to those with lots of money &/or influence, & who can afford a powerful attorney.

24- To maintain hope for a good future by telling the public they are monsters ~~who~~ who can't be trusted & should not be hired, or allowed to advance to better positions. And that's if their ever let out in the first place. They should be monitored ~~for~~ for the rest of their lives.

Note: These statements might not be politically correct, But nevertheless, they are factually ~~correct~~ true !!! ~~only one~~
