

Come Holy Spirit, I need you to help me write this for your purpose and glory.

To start off, I have been incarcerated now 7 years in Fmucc, Las Vegas, NV.

This is my 1st time in a Correctional Center which it has been called to rehabilitate women from bad behavior till Ms. McClure died.

Now its a place of control issue in my opinion. Since I've been in here, I've seen a lot of changes.

I am considered a "child case" due to the attorneys, DA, Judges, were bias in 2012. Which that is a story.

So because the women in here believe what courts, PSI, lies; they will stereotype and categorize other. So I'm not real liked.

See, I knew when I came due to my attorney, DA, Judge already knew what they were going to do. I decided to not fight the lies that they claimed my daughter said about me and didn't what to put her through anymore trauma since Arizona Legal System was not taking her out of the real abuser - her alcoholic father - Arizona kept putting her back into his care even tho I've been attempting to show his abuse... go figure...

Nevada State ²⁰⁰ Legal System has laws that are back woods and so it created me to get a 10-life Alford plea to protect my daughter... go figure.

As I said before, I knew what would happen and prepared myself. I even choose not to go to God which is what the women calls the "crazy" pod... I also choose not to be on medication for one, I react to pills differently and I can't take them. I will admit my choice of medicine is marijuana, yes, I'm a pot head. (lol) I choose to live in general population even tho I'm labeled.

I have been kicked, in the face, and when she finished, I asked her, "if she was done," then told her Jesus loved her.

I get called names which honestly don't bother me for one, they don't know the truth and two, I've been called names since I've been born...

A lot of women feel distrustful, ill, can't stand my sight or presence so again I can't take it personal for God loves me and created me for His purpose and glory and He knows my heart.

For some reason, a lot of the women here really believe that they are better and feel that they are not like me. I've seen a lot of women here that do "dish" me, hate me do drugs, fraud, murder and feel that they don't (1) harm families (2) harm their kids (3) will go back and do it again.

Honestly, what people believe I've supposedly done to my child they are not in that category yet I am going to make a very bold statement: "When you are so drugged up and "nodding off" and out for hours what have you done with your kids? Is someone watching them? And do you really believe that the someone watching ⁵⁰⁰ will not be harming your child? Are you able to make great decisions while you are "nodding off" with your child, right? Does your child wonder what you are doing? Do they walk in on you? You really believe you are not harming anyone families while you steal credit cards, fraud, etc.

while you are getting your desires or supported you kids for you believe God will understand the wrong for the right?

I get it, we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God.

I believe the reason that there is so many incarcerated over 2 million ⁶⁰⁰
because instead of helping people to not harm their kids, wife,
other is because you want monies
greed, power to keep something open.
Yes, I get that there is some people that do belong in prison yet alot are being incarcerated due to Attornies are overworked, lazy, or believe that you guilty because they want to get it over with so alot
of innocent people are (1) being coerced
to say "guilty" (2) being trump up with charges that are false. This is a scheme I believe to destroy families and people. For I quarrantee you that ^{too} most of the Cops, DAs, District Judges, Family Services ^{ATTORNEYS} have some problems. Alcoholism, Sexual Abuse, Domestic Abuse, Sexual harassment
in offices, Fraud (money schemes)
etc. yet I also believe this takes the eyes, problem off of them and put it on' other to cover up their lives.

Now are Prison are overflowed because the legal system needs to be changed.

My first-hand experience of being incarcerated these 7 years has shown me a lot: favoritism inmate, don't like a person at the work place - "set them up to get terminated." don't like her as a cellmate - created it to make it look like she is bullying you, hitting you, manipulate it to make her the bad cellie and get moved or what I've am experience right now - I had to say I was "threatening" my cellie to get out of her lies, argumentative, creating it to look like I was disrespectful and couldn't live as a human being. So I am now living what the Warden calls Unit 1 - Level 3 - which original it was created for the people in the "hole" disciplinary place to come here U7 to transcend to U1 - Level 2 - now it is a place for anyone that basically gets a Major even general's so now we can get into trouble for having to problem solve how to not get into trouble. I'm sure this didn't make sense see...

Because I couldn't handle and kept attempting to not allow my bunkie to get to me - which each time she did create an issue it was escalating. I didn't want to be in the room with her no more and you can't PG-up for basically, you will come right back in the same cell in 24 hours ⁽⁹⁰⁾ can't have a convenient bed move for its now being misused for girlfriends so I had to get a MJ25 threatening or MJ57 - refusing going in room - see I got in trouble to get out of trouble.

Another is "diluted testing" or you can't pee is now causing alot to spend time in the "hole", unit 1 when there's prove that the second test was clean, no drugs so you know get into trouble for drinking too much water. Can't go and have outside help to prove your innocence so now you will be put into U7 because you didn't let the prison do there job. (got outside help) (not let them do it) (LOL) ⁽¹⁰¹⁵⁾

I've seen a lot of stuff since 2012 -

How about I said favoritism?

Certain inmates get to get out of trouble when they "do" favors for certain officers or become their snitches... They get treated better (hol) Even certain staff members will do "stuff" with inmates to get their jollies off and someone gets blame for something they didn't do to get them out of the work-places cause they walked in on them. Some even spend monies and bring them in prison to give to their person... To figure...

I've seen officers treat inmates as an animal if they don't like them and get them fired, put into UT, write-up them up for silly stuff "Randomly" search them and take silly stuff and say it is not allowed or something to get them in trouble...

Since this place brought in the PERA now women can say that someone "Pera" them or was sexually bothering them and get them into the "hole" for days...

I believe they need to start helping people in addictions with real rehab, drug classes, and places instead of Prison. This place doesn't help one - it keeps them in their "criminal minds" to survive in here for their hungry, don't have ways to get what they need so they steal, create ways to get what they need, even harm someone if that's what it takes.

I believe when need to get back to our Constitution and "Common Law" not make up laws just cause -

Also now "Because someone created a "static" about situation like lying - if you stutter... when someone stutters because "to much going through their heads and attempting to answer them," Statics supposedly says not "if your teeth are bad" = your a meth head... in reality, someone has had bad teeth since childhood.

Static says "your parent abused your sexually most like you will be like your parent."

Doesn't anybody really care anymore?
Where is God anymore? Why have we believe lies, humanism, secularism instead of God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit. I really believe we, the nation, need to Repent of our ways and come back to the True God and be one nation under God... In God we trust instead of where we are at.

Church, we need to help/serve/love one another, even prisoners. We need to be building up one another, edifying, encouraging, comforting ~~each~~ each other in our lives then God will heal us.

Since I've been in Fmucc I have committed totally, not just partly in Jesus Christ my Jshi till death do us part which I will go to heaven my home when the King comes to pick us up.

So I have made it through these 7 years by writing, drawing, crocheting, Bible studies, helping with the "set-up" crew for GBB (Go Behind Bars) help in church, been a sponsor, accountability partner, a leader in Celebrate Recovery.

I am a prayer warrior (intercessor)

mentor others in their Bible Studies,
help with Devotions in our pods.

I stay focused on Jesus Christ and when I am home in Ft. Worth and whoever God puts in my life I help.
In Jesus Name,

I like to sing / dance to God
and worship Him... Pray, Pray, Pray...

I will be honest, if I attempted to do this without God, I would be gone for this is not a nice place and honestly, neither had the outc been either so I've had to rely on God not man.
Thank You Lord Jesus!

This is my story, This is my Song. Praising my Savior
all the day long...

To God Be the glory!

There is a lot we can do to stop a lot of this mass incarceration and getting out of this kind of living yet... Do we really want to...
OR just keep ignoring what what we Really need to do? GOD IS the Answer
