

- Arts is my Truth -

I am literally a man buried alive. Every morning I look into a mirror and burst within, insanity burglarizes my mind as I cry knowing this is my life, life at 16, 16 doing life.

Now 27, the only thing true in my life is Art. It is my artillery behind these walls. And for you I promise to be as articulately artful as possible. This is how I can be true to you.
