I'm thankfull and honered to be alive and have this opperfunity to relate my struggel. I pray that you all gain an everstanding of what I'm relating so you may utilize it fer the sake of the goodfight and positive struggel.

In a world of lonelyness because these who we call love ones and family don't communicate or shew support to us. In a world of unevilness cause the system lack the sense of our survivel on levels of mental, physical and emotionel stability. In a world of imperilistic treatment cause they feed on programed mindframes and the injustice that's promoted in so called institutions of justice. I fight all day, everyday to keep my sanity normale, my soul pure & untainted from the continous evil enclosed in my enviroment. Maintaining is my objective to my everyday struggel that I base a 6 (six) point program too my Growth & Development.

1) Education is my source to broden my horizen mentaly, spiritualy, & visonly to know the edge (knowledge) of the 4 corners of the Earth.

2) Economics is my source to truely overstand why free-dom is not really free until I learn how my sovereignty was paid for.

3) Politics is my source to communicate and negotiate with the many nations of this modern world.

4) Social Development is my source to overstand the human struggel for prosperity, love, and happyness.

5) Unity is my source to shew all races we are of one species and the same kind of man.

6) Organization is my source to put my life in order so I may respond accordingly.

In this incarcerated world we must obtain to our own program that has a positive outcome at the end of our sentence. The Chapter 103 in The Holy Quran states: In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. By the token of time through the ages, verily Man is in loss, except such as have faith and do righteous deeds, and join together in the mutual teaching of truth and of patience and constancy. Time came with change, and change came with time, so it is inevitabel not to change like the unstoppabel hands of time. It's how we change is the factor to our survivel during incarceration. People tend to change into what their enviroment consist of, some are mindful of this and most arent. Being incarcerated the pressure is over whelming and the adverage person will fall victim to an unworthy change. All because people tend to forget and or do away with where they came from, the morale, value and principels that has been instilled into them from their family while being raised into the man they claim to be. When we step into prison the culture is animalistic and we tend to look at all the negatives of a person instead of the positives. Such as observing the ways a person is reflecting his family's good morales, values and principels then try to build upon those actions and instill them for ourselves. But people want to know where you from (gang affilation) and your crime. As to say one sin is bigger than the next. All sin is equal by its nature wrong is wrong and right is right no matter what morale compass you navigate in life by.

As I enlighten on the points of doing time in my state, I know these points may vary from state to state. However my general point of this missive is about maintaining righteously and there's only 3 ways you could handel time. You could waste time in which one that dont know what to do with it will tend to do nothing with it. You could spend time in which the pleasure doing it is only for the mere moment. You could INVEST TIME in which a wise person will do to recieve something back and the investment is the positive growth and development of ones struggel.

Identifing ones struggel is as easy to know where one weakness in life is. I believe once we take the time out of each day to reflect upon self to overstand our strengths & weakness. We become fully aware of how we need to change and control the change plus time to benefit ourselves. "What's the one battel a person can't win? When they battel the irselves"!. Being content about our intentions and understanding how our desires can persuade change to our decsions is the true power. It's the key to keepping ourselves grounded in our modern lifestyles. Dont noone like to showcase their weakness in prison, it shows vunerability and this tells alot to those with a disstructive mentality. The youth may look at it as a flaw in character, then predators that seek this weakness is their point of attack to breat your manhood. For that last one is another topic to discuss. I hope that you've gained some food for thought about obtaining your own program of positive building. I also hope you have an appeite for this type of knowledge I'm writting, so when I present another reading you endulge eagerlessly. I stand my ground as a polictal prisoner and rejoice when the youth utilize my words of wisdom. Just like steal sharpens steal, Man sharpens Man! I leave as I came with the salutations of Plenty Much Love & Peace be upon you.

Sincerly
B.O.S.S.
