RE: Oregon / Louisiana
non-UNANIMOUS v. UNANIMOUS Verdicts * UN-Constitutional *

Recently... The issue of non-UNANIMOUS Jury verdicts have become a hot legal topic in Oregon / Louisiana, Judicial system.

The United States Supreme Court is set to make a ruling 10/2019.

"Only" two+ states utilize non-UNANIMOUS Jury verdicts.

Apparently... in *acknowledgement* of a constitutional violation of a very fundamental right.

The Louisiana law makers and the Judicial system concede
there exist a constitutional violation.
The *Louisiana Constitution*
in its self... was un-constitutional.

This Louisiana Constitution has been in effect for "Decades".

It's "shocking", that the Louisiana Justice system --- has "not" come forth Decades Ago -

Legal scholars - ignored this constitutional rights violations -

This obvious, violation certainly invites the Question<sup>(s)</sup> of their Integrity. E.T.C

The Truth be. That they are constitutional rights violators - an inescapable fact -

as well as irresponsible. and very un-fit to be in a position to be charged with the responsibility that involved the constitutional rights of American citizens.

The *Swamp* needs Drained at the very top. Constitutional rights violators should not^ be insulated from being held accountable.

Their actions have caused Decades of irreversible . . . . . un-constitutional incarcerations.

*illegal incarcerations*
absolutely irrevocable.

The Louisiana Ruling sends a very clear message.

The practice is un-Constitutional.
It essentially, converts "not Guilty"
Juror votes to Guilty -

Oregon has the very same practice
in place -

Oregon is soon to be the "only"
state that utilizes that practice -

all<sup>e</sup> other states require a UNANIMOUS Jury verdict. (12-0)

This is a hot topic in the Oregon Judicial System -

There has been major news articles addressing this constitutional issue -
The Question remains... Will...
Oregon continue this practice for decades to come...?

without accountability... its a clear approval of un-constitutional acts demonstrated upon the American citizens.

by the very law makers, and the very judicial system entrusted to protect the constitution its of all.

In the 8/27/19 USA today news paper the Oregon atty Gen - said. Before the U.S. Supreme Ct.

The States Criminal Justice System would be *overwhelmed* if the U.S. Supreme Court rules that non-unanimous jury verdicts are un-constitutional.

This constitutional rights violation is demonstrated upon citizens by the judicial system.

have been utilized for years. For some *victims* there exist no judicial relief.

The courts / Judicial system is a continual proliferation of scams - Victimization of Tax payer / citizens -
The cost of un-constitutional - incarcerations - Astronomical Amount - It's the victimization of America - America is brain washed in to being voluntary victims. *Consensual*

Do we want a Society in which deception<sup>⑤</sup> by the courts / Judicial system becomes a way of life?

We cannot tolerate a society -
in which the government courts - Judicial system is empowered to conduct every manner of scam at will and without accountability - Public Defenders are in *moral Ruin's* attempting to pretend - to take guard constitutional It's

State Bars are fatal to constitutional levels of representation.

The State Bar adds, instead a second department to a sub-constitutional level of representation.

The ripple effects are incredible.

Local law enforcement, * Know Well...*
