

Open Letter to the Editor

By Alan Sorensen

Dear President Trump,

I suppose congratulations are in order for your acquittal of impeachment. I say that I suppose because how many good men and women have been convicted and sit in prison because unlike you they did not have the money for good lawyers and positive press to make sure the world knew they were innocent until proven guilty.

I have to ask why is it so popular for you politicians to cry wolf just to remind us all people are innocent until proven guilty, when in fact you know as well as I that most people are presumed guilty until proven innocent, and let's face it 'hearsay evidence' is only a way for the court to white wash the truth. You can't fight a negative statement..

So I must ask you President Trump, what makes you and all the politicians who say such things so different, your courts and prisons are full of people like me who did nothing more than tell the truth. I thought no one was above the law, but I see in this I am mistaken, thirty years and counting, the cost of my innocence!

We the People

Sincerely

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Alan Sorensen", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.