

my eyes are open still I'm blinded by the fact that life may end today then what? Its weird to have a question mark after your name or statement but is a period worse? I guess thats another question Right? Deep down I feel the pain of many years as if time stood still. Today not tomorrow, now not yesterday but deep down it all means the same The era of my way has left me down but up straight but narrow. ~~Imagine~~ a peaceful silence who am I kidding I indulge in the noise as it whispers violently to take charge of my body. I know how it gets when it wants to control me, normally the old me would have listened just to feel the power of all those years of being the bully target. I cant lie I love bob he does what needs to be done says what has to be said. Right now I'm feeling damn cruise of the after effects of bob but I'm not to nobody till I get in a rage cause bob fakes charge. Some times I can shut him up talk nice but tick, tok, tick, tok he laughs when I think or pretend I have control when I don't Any ways what was I saying? Back to the questions again!!!
