

To Whom it May Concern:

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health. I am not trying to drain your resource, but seeking help. Since my hands are tied, I am forced to contact you, because of my status as a prisoner, don't write me off as an other statistic. In Crisis people come together, then why I am alone. My daughter and son need me, but pride makes the judiciary refused to treat me fairly.

Handcuffs in carcass for; I want to be independent and pursue other goals in life, then is it possible when the courts we turned to have prejudices held within itself. Where is justice, the knowledge I accumulated post a threat, then the public schools, public etc. were designed to failed.

I am writing you as a United States citizen--not a criminal whohe up one day and decided he wanted his freedom, but one that should be treated equally in similar situated circumstances. In a hierarchical society, judges cannot and should not pick who and when to treat someone equal. We are only equal in the eyes of the law, impartiality, according to the Code of Conduct, judges should rule in every cases; because we are all human people tend to go rogue.
