

How am I? why would you choose to hate Me?

what is the root of your hatred? Yes, I am blatantly asking you, because it is you that hate Me. I serve a loving God. A just God that hates evil! what god do you serve? How is it possible that we can be one of the same and at the same time be so far apart in similarities? My intellect has nothing to do with the history of someone else's immoral actions. But I know. I see the fruits of the poisonous tree, I am completely aware of the infected soil from which it grows. I tread lightly upon the ground of exposed land mines, particularly the ones with specific targets of complexion. Why? what is it about Me that fuels the hatred in which you possess. My IQ scores are above average, but the actual tests were never designed for me to execute effectively. Does My vocabulary offend your complexes? My questions are comical only because I know they stir up strife and place snares in the path of my adversaries. Hosea! Hosea! Hosea! why should My knowledge cause My people to perish?

Deadlier than the sword is the pen, which contains an unlimited amount of the substance that causes fury in the hearts of those who choose to dislike my construction of nouns and verbs. why? what are you afraid of? Is it true that once an officer of the law acts in bad faith, They can lose Their government immunity? How? How could that be true? The laws of our country have evolved since 1787, yet we still have the same issues today - those who write the rules to live by really mean: the rules are for

You to follow - not me. This is after all, why this country was founded by our forefathers - seeking relief from tyranny.

Have You ever taken the time to read the "United States of America's" Declaration of Independence? At least the very last two sentences? I quote (the first to last): "we, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these united colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the states of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do." OK, lets pause, who is the Supreme Judge of the world who WE are appealing to? Let's continue with the very last sentence of this "magnificent document". I quote, again, "And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor". End Quote.

- Respectfully articulated