RE: lies and false witnessing

So I just received a letter from the Public Defender's office seems one of the witnesses for the prosecution was arrested for violation of Penal code section 4573.9 in Los Angeles County Superior Court I also received a letter from the Los Angeles County District Attorney's office Prison Crimes Unit stating that case # [REDACTED] the conduct at issue in that case occurred before her testimony in my case in # [REDACTED] well I can't say much other than the biggest lie won the case against me seems things are already starting to prove me innocent oh yea that code # 4573.9 states it is punishable by imprisonment for 2, four or six years for any person, other than a person held in custody to furnish ect. or offer to furnish ect. any controlled substance to a prison inmate, funny how God works I rest my case seems to be no wonder things can change ~~over~~ night while the public defender in his letter states how this may be a chance to overturn my verdict against me he warns me it's too early into the investigation
