

CELL-DWELLER JOURNAL: "I lost it all, but found myself"

AUTHOR: SEKOU 'FAMILY' ASKARI

DATE: 8-7-13

BLACK AUGUST (ENTRY SEVEN)
ESSAYS

Nobody sets-out 'planning to fail' at what they do, yet we often set-out 'failing to plan' what we do?

The consequences for that, can singlehandedly cost us our lives, or freedom, and all of our possessions, even those we love. What I've learned is, the best way to ^{PLAN and ?} change my 'thinking' is ^{to} 'change my books'.

This is what Cell Dweller University is founded on, believing that, if the Cell Dweller's thinking is to change, then change their literature.

Sometimes, you've got to teach them how to 'read' first, prisoners mentoring other prisoners, showing each other how to manage his/her own time, not ~~the prison~~ ^{THE PRISON}. This is what George Jackson had showed my mentor's, who then showed me, each one teach one.

'Dragon' George, those of us who have been bitten by the dragon ^{LEARN TO ?} possess the strength to direct human affairs, while remaining invisible, unseen, and ⁽¹⁵⁰⁾ silent, behind the scenes. For dragons;

'mortal' frailty is nothing. Just as it's nothing to the powers of nature. Dragons do not experience love or ~~the~~ good or evil.

George's accounts for why he chose the 'Dragon', because of its ancient 'Chinese' mythological history. The 'Dragon' is only ⁽²⁰⁰⁾ seen by people, when it chooses to be, which is rarely; it prefers to be 'concealed', in its lair. When it's time to feed, it comes out.

Its scales, make it practically indestructable, its senses are extremely heightened, it breathes fire. Possessing strength's that can direct worldly affairs. Long live the Dragon - ⁽²⁵⁰⁾

Long live George Lester Jackson, Long live the Guerrilla's ^{way ?} Long live II VII VI.

(265) words

THE CELL DWELLER
LEVERT "SEKOU" BROOKSHIRE