Courage and Fear

By Micah McKinley

June 4, 2020

In my life I've known Courage
We met when I was right out, 27
Nowadays Courage is saying I love your bed more
I find Courage when I sleep

In my life I've known Fear
We met when I was in my early 20's
These days Fear is losing to a fight
Fear finds me when I am around all day

I've learned that Courage and Fear are different

When Courage tells me to give way to winning
Fear says stop, think before
Usually I listen to myself and others
I wish to stay with my love forever
I wish to be rich and healthy
