Change is Real

Change is Real By. Kalil Phillips

Change is Real People, All my life I've been Misguided. All my life I've been Wrong. I did a lot of things in my past that I regret and I learned from these past mistakes. Moving forward I've made better decisions and developed skills that can better my future. "Change is Real People!!" It really is. I remember I never believed in it, I was ~~stuck~~ stuck in a different world and I had to ~~break~~ break myself out of it. I was lost. After my grandmother passed I went into a dark space and was in this for a while. What made me change was me being in prison and meeting different people that had lots of time or life and would possibly die in prison. They use to talk to me and give all types of advice, to be honest I needed it. It hurt my heart to see so many people in prison that's never coming home. ~~they~~ some are eligible for release in 20 to 30 years. That woke me up. I didn't want that to be me I love my freedom. I worked on my mind and soul in prison. →

I learned everything I can learn and Put It to good use.
One day I was talking to a friend of mine and He said "Kalil You gotta go Home and Stay Home Bro", "You Have a Chance to Become great", "Your Young and I ~~can~~ Can see You doing Big things", "Kalil this is Your last Chance Man, I've made lots of Mistake's and can't go Home But You Kalil are different." Right then and there I thought I Will Prevail, I ~~will~~ Have failed so many time, I Have let so many People down, I gotta make It right.
I Know my Mom and Grandmother are looking down at me Shaking their Heads Because I Wasn't raised to live this lifestyle. Change is real and anything's Possible. Recently I've Writin a Book, and Its to Encourage People that's In Prison, Drug Facility's and Society to Change their Criminal/~~and~~ Addictive Lifestyle If one Choose to do so. I Break down lessons on How to do so and to Show How to follow the Path to greatness. "The First Step on the Path to greatness" is to understand the Meaning of Change and Its Stage's. Change Have's 5 Stage's, Pre-Contemplation, Contemplation, Preparation, Action, and Maintenance. understanding these Stages are Very Important on Your Journey to Change. then one must forgive His/her self and others and Always remember, ~~if~~ If there's a better way, Its a better life. Change is real and I Will Prevail, I will ~~break~~ Break the Change and I Will successfully Complete my Journey to greatness.

Sincerely Yours!!
