

Sept. 26, 21

The first time I came down to the penitentiary was a little bit worse than it is now, as far as with the inmate environment. Since then when I came down this time things are very different, ran different. Now correctional officers have more authority which is alright, but not to abuse it. I feel now especially with this pandemic, is giving them the excuse to just have us locked in the cell for majority of the time. We hardly get any yard time and we are not allowed to exercise inside. In the prison I am now is always "short staffed" and we are put in our cells till they decide they are able to I guess come up with some staff to work. I do understand that I am in a Maximum Security prison but I know we also have rights and privileges if we are being well behaved. This is just something I wanted to get off my chest. Thank y'all for taking the time to read this.
