

That Fucker Time

time's teeth bite and time's teeth grind these painful thoughts within my mind time doesn't fly, time it crawls ticking seconds off concrete walls time's teeth tear and time's teeth rend time aint nice and time aint your friend time's an ocean and time has tide flows in - your born, ebbs out - you've died time isn't your pal, time isn't kind time will watch you grow old and blind the Sands of time, they slowly fall there's no escape from the time keepers call time moves strait and time don't bend time's still here long after your end contrary to thought, not on your side but that fucker time's a helluva ride
