

"The Prison Ideal in America"

The Theory of taking a human. Disassociating him with reality and true life experiences and simply holding him inside the walls of prison then casting him out, once the "right" time comes about with little to no life skills is scary.

from my years of living in and out of the walls. I can say that as complex as it may seem. A lot can't be done. But I believe in the "United States" and I say the country name because the whole country is guilty of not paying attention and solely treating the "problem" as a fountain of fortune. Instead of truly focusing on things that can fix the "problem". One thing for sure, crime is not going anywhere. It's not. But the treatment of "people" can affect it and influence and discourage the rate at which crime is committed.

I'm not saying create a state of handouts! I do not believe that because I'm a citizen of the U.S. that I deserve handouts. But I do believe in the training of knowledge in fields that are conducive to the economics of this beautiful country.

We have a very dark past. This country is headed down a dark past if we continue to throw away our basic principles in which unified our country men in the beginning. And it starts with the kids.

We can send 70 billion dollars to a country to fight Russia but have a whole Texas city where drugs crime and Death are Daily occurrences. This Country is sick. Because we can't sing the Pledge of allegiance to our flag without offending people. our morals principles and goals are all wrong. All the while the antics of future and past Presidents take center stage. Hinder the Country from focus on the true issues at hand in this Country.

The strife and all of our social issues and our Country's pitfalls and social injustices are all developed from one common denominator. Selfishness it comes down to that.

You reading this! Me writing this, we are all so consumed in self gain that we walk on the Next person to gain wealth.

Food. Property. material; its all our poison.

Instead of Being humanitarians or Angels or Good People America is corrupt. were so fast to subject others to Pain that we've lost sight of this Country's purpose! The Golden Dream of Building family expanding generational wealth and took the focus around and back all along avoiding the true problems that plague this Country.

Prison is Slavery. In every form. I make 13 cents a day for 8 hours of work. The cost of a Ramen Noodle 45¢ The cost of a Next one Soap Bar. 88¢ I make enough to Buy a Bar of Soap a Day.

I see it Now that some readers are vilifying me. "oh, he's a convict he don't deserve nothing" yeah, until you take a drink and wreck into a car killing someone and your my Bunkie, Its so simple to be sitting in here. Do I belong here?

yes, I need rehabilitation. Not for life. But yet there is No rehab, IM sitting here. and boom tomorrow IM released.

Now Ten years past. Theres a big gap in my history. No skills and No Drivers license. what options. are there? Granted I have a couple realities. But there are people with zero family. what for them? Been in prison 30 years. sex offenders! No companion ship. They have been getting piped down by the predators in here and learn to love being sexual victims in here! Boom you release them. what next? Ask yourself that? Hes going to reoffend.

The greatest inhibitor is incentives. Not handouts! Jobs.
work programs. Its a fact that they work. Michigan. Does Nothing to encourage growth. Its SAD.

Discloser, Before people judge me and pass judgement. I make No excuses. I have thought like a criminal to lead me here.
Ive taken the hundreds of hours to read and try to gain a understanding of why Ive made the choices I have in the past. Ive tried to understand why Ive made poor decisions even going in knowing it WAS a bad choice and Ive come to the conclusion.
That the thought of getting away the feeling and rush of committing a crime is just as addictive as committing drugs abuse. Ive had irresistible urges to beat people up when theyve crossed me.

I've experienced "alter egos", I've painted the picture of being a self righteous guy. To justify certain crimes.

I've sullied my own virtuousness! And glorified my history. But, I'm disgusted with my actions over my lifetime. It pains me to admit my past doings. a person simply must want change to change.

It helps when there are helping hands and a sense of direction.

IM struggling with the MDOC OVER Basic Needs, I have a reconstructed foot, with a disfigured foot from an injury when I WAS 20 It took 40 medical kites And grivance after grivance to finally see a certified foot doctor. over two years, I seen a guy Break a foot. The Health care said drink more water and keep your foot elevated. 8 weeks later,

The institution Paid to get his foot amputated Because they Didn't XRAY and treat him infection settled in and New yeah he has settlement cash But also only has one foot, my Biggest fear is getting a cancer or injury in here. There is zero tolerance for Pain management. were Not human enough to deserve Pain Relief. The health care is privatized so its Not on MDOC. if you want Health services you have to file lawsuits which cost 400,00 to file so its a system that against us, I have my medical kites and Pledings all. I have over 21 months of kites and there responses. finally almost two years later I received a special accommodation. A reinforced shoe that isn't standard. It's a 1/2 inch thicker to compensate for my limp. But it took two years to be addressed. So for two years I walked on the outside of the oxford poorly supported shoes they give inmates torturous pain for two years. To finally say oh yeah, you do have 12 pins 3 plates of metal and a disfigured foot heres some medical shoes. But I'm not human I'm just 711362 Michigan Department of Corrections. Inmate.
