

"Judicial Masquerade"

political figures in the most extravagant costumes a satchel full of untruths

a headquarters full of big business trinkets courtrooms overflowing in chicanery congressional floors carpeted in cover-up senate chambers marred in pinnacle suspicion some insist judges are the fault of it all some must realize the house and senate set it all off — so remember them in your face