

"Martyr Humdingus Legend" a diatribe extraordinaire in the face of criminal justice browbeat

Pity, please abstain it i'm ok with having to take one a dollop of ~~stark~~ ~~fiercely~~, fight and expose — i'll take one; i've acquitted one a duress and turpitude blend in plea bargain solvent can't rive me from destiny unafraid i stand and point fingers at these judicial gargoyles

unlike ~~common~~ ~~with~~, i call out names and date them to challenge me they then resort to a mélange of lies, wordplay and subterfuge my stance soon make history history

mystery; mystery

theist story

our story — bellwether where truth tether the way i call out these lying law loonies have never been done by an imprisoned intellect it's ok, i'll take one for the team innocent, expose indiscriminate — mad, mean undo your praying hands and do as i do follow not to the letter their rules when they wrongly imprison you
