

"They Down There, I'm Up Here"

I'm imprisoned and still I drop my chin in order to see nabob

Busses are my main means of transportation but my tenet is more venerable than lawmakers

Walking streets of the ghetto is a constant for me

Looking up to me for guidance is a constant for them (them — government entities)

Up in elite class status at a nadir

I tower over the statue of liberty;

no hand will be lent in attempted elevation

You control votes, people and money while I take jurisdiction over the entire Universe
