

Level 5

Home of the assaultive ones

A prison within a prison

Darker than the RHU

Even worse than Death Row

Locked down like a caged animal

The shit throwers are there

Lifer's who murdered their cellies for a Z code

It's the last rodeo for the escape artists, cell rapers and guard killers

This is Level 5

Dehumanization is the code there

A cold place that shows no mercy

It's hell on Earth, even for the one's with remorse in their hearts

It laughs at Mental Health issues

Level 5 never changes-doesn't care

It just sucks the life out of you!
