Dear Readers:

to Get straight to the alleluia Point. Any successful man or woman. Their success is determined BY the rocks (controversaries) being thrown at her and/or him. From the naysayers. Which they use to laydown his/her foundation. We have but only two (2) options - adapt or adopt. The calls for actions are overwhelming which potentially could be responsible for the lacks thereof. Yet, the each and all said contents from this letter. Is the presentations, and established earlier calls for action. Available (mentally, physically, and also economically). You can't cook with cold grease! Our struggle is the same oppressive measures. That were being heaped upon our ancestors. Therefore, all oppressive measures indeed are-systematic. However, it's been well overdo. We individually, take a Good look inside the mirror. And make peace with the enemy. I deliberately Repeat - ~~Do~~ Take a Good look inside the mirror. And make peace with the enemy.

Any inside struggle is only as strong as it's connections to outside allies. The domination of people of color in the western hemisphere is organized to benefit the settlers colonialists (white people) at the expense of everyone nonwhite. In connection, it's Pathetic. And your scrutiny is warranted. That relates to the powers that be - criminalizing the 13th Amendment of the United States Constitution. Such Red-herring allows slavery to continue. Just in a different fruition. Indeed. Abolition would broaden our imagination and help one see outside of the box/system. ~~Our~~ ^{This} system preserves/restores us remaining - fiasco.

By then criminalizing the 13th Amendment. They also criminalized Black People, Places, and behaviors that state being able to circumvent protections guaranteed by the 13th Amendment. Criminalization is the modern form of dehumanization, similar to the dehumanization employed by the slave trade. The 13th Amendment's loophole recreates the arbitrary function of slavery that allows for any Black Person to be apprehended and taken into bondage. Black women are able to be violated in every imaginable way, this must thwart. Imprisonment is the replacement for slavery. While simultaneously they've turned punishment into a business. And incubators have adapted to the same habits it was supposedly created to correct. As Frederick Douglass said: "The limits of Tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress." Prison lives matter as well. The two aren't both of differentiated character - both are one in the same. So they're must be a bridge. That's me and your job. In essence, the trajectory here. Martin Luther King Jr. called the uprising of the oppressed, "the language of the unheard". It's no coincidence that the disposable are the most ^{policed} ~~resisted~~ most surveilled and ^{most} ~~more~~ likely to find themselves victims of America's ongoing spectacle of violence. Solidarity must be made with imprisoned leadership. Plus, as Mariame Kaba said, "anything worthwhile is worth doing with others."

In final. George Jackson also said that the Revolution can not be won as long as bread and circuses continue to appease, but for many living through austerity, the circuses have now removed bread from the menu.
