

The Leviathan

7-22-21

One day I was on my way back to my cell and as I passed by the Cops podium I overheard a C/O "Correctional Officer" call an inmate/slave "you demons". Which is how they are trained to view us. Not only by their superiors but it is the general mind set bouncing around in the C/O ecco chamber.

When I heard that I was again saddened by the complete lack of truth within the correctional community. Us inmates/slaves are in the pit of hell which is the belly of the Beast. Us inmates/slaves are here because we are paying for our sins but for us at least there is redemption and the chance for transcendence. It is those who suffer the most who are closer to God. Because the need is sincere when we reach out for guidance and understanding.

Now, who is it that guard the gates of hell but demons and devils who resent and torment the condemned and already suffering? etc in the C/O with their fire breath weapon (Pepper Spray) and pitch fork "Lead Baton" Who are the true demons and devils who also work for Satan himself. They are minions of the Leviathan (The Criminal Justice System). They pump their chests out with pride on their high horse cracking their whips because they follow rules or have not you get caught breaking rules.

There is something important I have to say. Only cowards follow all the rules. But statues are made for people who break rules and step away from social conformity. We as divine beings do not need rules to live by and enslave us to a pathetic construct we call life. There are natural laws that give us guidance and point us all toward perfection and harmony. Justice is not dished out by man. Justice is a natural phenomena that does not need human interference. It is natural that we all suffer ~~not~~ what we are by the pains of conscience and the events that reflect what qualities we radiate. It is much more effective than dishing out an absurd number of years under the banner of revenge. Let's call it like it is, retaliation and revenge. But its ~~more~~ more than that isn't it.

The Leviathan is a beast that feeds off of human trafficking and enslavement. It surely wouldn't be such a huge industry if it wasn't profitable. How is it that in the greatest most civilized country in the world abides the most thriving Prison industrial/slave network? How? I ask of the moral Americans, How can you let incarceration and slavery become a major profitable industry? Incarceration and enslavement is an evil thing and has nothing to do with justice. Everyone who profits from incarceration and enslavement is a servant of Satan. ~~The Court~~

The Courtroom is the mouth of the Leviathan, the district attorney is the teeth. The entire Courtroom scene is a prop to give the illusion of fairness and devotion to truth and justice. Who of all people can say the courts are fair and just? No one, if they have sincerity. There is a book of rules dictating how and what a person can present in their own defense and the judge is more concerned about following the rules of Court than finding the truth. The whole Truth so help our God. It is in design to make defending oneself difficult. Whereas an honorable court would make defending oneself as easy as possible without aid of an attorney. But as I have said the Court room is the mouth of the Leviathan. Dante was correct in his inferno. Hell is now and we are all here together and almost no one can see it. Prison is the pit of hell. But I am happy to say that in the deepest darkness light shines the brightest. If it were not for prison I would not have made contact with the Divine. I once was blind but now I see.

Before I move on I want to say that ignorance is not an absence of knowledge. It is often said that ignorance is no excuse for breaking the law. Fine, but if I am not aware of the law I am not ignorant of it I am unaware of it. Ignorance is an active refusal to acknowledge something, not the absence of knowledge.

We do not punish an infant, for playing with fire and burning down a building with people inside. Because the child was not aware of what it was doing, not aware, a lack of knowledge and understanding. So even though the child/infant did burn down the building and killing people the child is innocent. Its lack of knowledge is its innocence not ignorance. So true, ignorance is no excuse for breaking the law but a person who is not aware of the law is innocent or that person fell into the snare/trap of the beast with a huge grin thinking "I got another one".

I am so fortunate to be here in prison for so many reasons but one of the reasons is that I get to spend my life around the most interesting people alive.

Why are prisoners the most interesting people alive? It is because we are the outcasts, the ones who do not conform to social convention, our minds are free and even our addictions are a gift because it demands an internal investigation which leads to a deep understanding and sometimes actual Enlightenment. Our suffering is our gift. ~~and the~~

When I was 11 or 12 years old someone shot my Dad in the back, he died when he crashed into a telephone pole driving himself to the hospital. I did not know my father very well but I loved him and I admired him and today I know he would have been a good father if he was allowed to remain in my life. We never did find out who killed my father but I have put a lot of attention into the question, what would I do if I found out who it was.

The answer is nothing. That's right, I would let it go because I understand what God's justice is, I have forgiveness in my heart and I know the pain of taking life. Though I am in prison for murder I am a righteous man. In fact

I am willing to say that people who have been in prison are better human beings than the rest of you. I am not talking to all humans I am talking to the judgemental sanctimonious assholes who think their shit don't stink because they never been in trouble with the law and I am talking to the victors who are so lost that they cling to victoriness to fill a void in their life. I want to give you a gift. Forgiveness can not be given to anyone and it does not let anyone off the hook. We seek forgiveness so that we can let go of the past and not taint the present and the future with the baggage of the past. If you can not let go of the wrong you suffered then you are victorizing yourself and that hatred and resentment that is in you is only harrising your life and you become recheid and rotten because you can't let go. That is the beauty of Forgiveness. All of you who want people to spend their life in prison are recheid creators.

No amount of time can right a wrong and handing out time that is abserdly excessive is itself a wrong. My room told me when I was young that two wrongs don't make a right.

The only thing that can right the wrong is the understanding and change it can bring if a person is able to recieve.

If you think you are going to live forever or live without the pain of losing a loved one you are delvsional. News flash, Every body dies and loses those that they love. This life is not ment to be perrenent, it is a stepping stone and a filter. By the experiences we endure we gain understanding and an increase in quality. An increase in quality brings you closer to God.

I have much more to say and I am full of answers that can bring actual conviction into your hearts. I am a Bodhisattva, a spirit Dragon, Keeper of the Secret of immortality. Test me.

Sincerely + Love
