See; over the years I have done alot of stupid s---, Cool s---, Fun s---, ect.... yet I never tire of travelling; meeting new and interesting People!

I'm not going to tell you that you have to quit all of the fun stuff or else! What I will tell you tho is some facts. In order to survive anything in life you must feed the beast! You have to eat daily! Plus you have to work; Full-time if possible!

But explore the world, explore your talents, to experiance as much as you can that life offers!! Enjoy all that you do! Because if your not enjoying it, well it's not worth the hassle!

I'm not saying if you don't enjoy working, F--- It! and quit your job, laying around all day in your scivies and bathrobe collecting unemployment! I'm saying explore every type of work, you will find a job that's right up your ally; and if your working at something you enjoy, well work becomes enjoyable!!

OK, now go to a nice quiet pond (or your toilet if your locked up) with a pocket full of assorted size stones! Start with the smallest stone. Toss it in and watch the water thinking of what else there is to see staring at the pond (or toilet!! lol). Then toss in a bigger stone, still watching-seeing. Then a bigger stone, then a bigger stone, still watching! What do you see?

It's life in it's rawest form! Each stone that you have tossed into the water represent's one of your life's problems! The ripples from the stone hitting the water represent's who or what your problem's in life affect! The destination of those ripples and what they spread out and ultimately do represents the damage that your problem's cause!

The small problem's in your life, like the small stones create little problem's or ripples in your quiet pond (toilet) of life! As they lap the shore. So it's quite natural that those big stones, sometimes boulder's and cliff's drop into the water with enormous force! Destroying all things in it's path! Just as those big problem's in your life that you've created do! Not only to you, but to those around you as well!

So if you diligently secure or remove those boulders, shoreing up the fragile cliffs in order to prevent a landslide from occurring. Affectively causing a Tsunami of bad things to happen in your life. Then you will be just fine!!

I have seen so many People that have said Fu-- It! Letting that landslide or boulder loose to hit the water of life. Causing damage so great; they still can't see the end of it and may well never see the end of it in this life!

The end will come once everyone they know stops visiting, writting, excepting their collect phone calls as they start dieing off. While serving out the remainder of their lives in a filthy, evil filled prison! Thinking to the end that it's everyone else's fault as to why and what put them where they are!

But the facts are, NO! These People do it to themselves! They watch all those movies, shows, music video's, ect.... glorifying Robbing, Killing, Selling Drugs and Pimping! Seeing how the Bad Guy always wins. Blauzay-Squazay! These clowns actually believe that it's true!

You can here it in their stories. Even tho they are now serveing life in prison because of it, sitting on solitary because of it. None of this is their fault for believeing the fantasy! It's everyone else's! Everyone's against me, Everyone's oppressing me, yahta, yahta, yahta, they were wrong for catching my crimes and punishing me as they see it!

It makes me want to tell them to wake the F--- up ---holes! You committed a crime! You knew you were committing a crime! You got arrested and charged for committing a crime! As 99.9% of the criminals do whom have been sent to prison! Which even now in here they still glorify crime and act like mean, evil little clown's! But it still isn't their fault according to them!
