

Perdition's Son

a mountain of sin named after me built from my own iniquity covered by my glaring shame which melts of course into the river of remorse a river I am drowning in weighted down by my own sins and I'm the only one to blame if my amends remain undone then I'll remain perdition's son

Redemption

to redeem oneself
to buy back to recover by payment to recover by doing something to clear a debt to purchase the freedom of to save from damnation to save from the consequences of sin to make up for deficiencies to make up for one's former faults to make it right
