

Abbreviation of the opposition's life span.
who oppose can drown in a hale storm of hollows with in this strong tide.
my life is strolling down a gloomy ride of bottled anger pluss revenge inside.
screaming out gun smoke of spirits that collide.
As it chokes my vibrato cables inside.
the range from my vision sets clear view as the redemption from my pain divides.
The rage of my conscious burns like the flair from my pistol that blinds. A melody from a song hurts, Memories left lingers from a curse. While the pulsation from my heart beats forcefully yet not being able to burst.
Blood from my veins flow as the air from my lungs inflate.
While the pressure from my pain over flows. the force from my rage causes my blood filled veins to detenate.
Redness seeps out with ease as the line rest restfully in time as my eye lids shut peacefully with grieve.
sending cold chills down her spine as I leave.

the pressure can you live with the pressure
The pressure that kills on ill will produces bullets that fly carelessly out the chamber to my opposition side now songs cry.
Soundless nights fighting with my dark side inside. I write as a expression to freedomize my mind. Trouble what so ever my anger that stabs at my actions inside.
Inside the belly of the beast he burbs chaotic moments with no remorse inside beef that he ~~stomach~~ stomachs
But the steel and the aroma of plastic that burns through my nostrals.
I push through these gloomy night pass my pass of gun smoke
I strive.
