"When I Broke Down I Broke Free"

Give love A Try one more time

I was used and abused at an early age in life

Only one that made me feel like I belong is now long gone

A Great Grandmother with the heart of Gold

Im Surprised The lord Dint take her poor soul a long time ago

This world was to cold For a girl like her

Just like its always Been to cold For a girl like me

I Built a protection for myself By changing my whole identity

I Am No longer who I use to be Im Not me

Im Just A Shadow of myself

Stronger, wiser, faster

But something is missing from this new me

A Part of me that only a few got The chance to see

Im Not me anymore

I Have to Remind myself that I am somebody else

I Had A love But then I lost Her

I tried to love again But then I lost her

So I tried to love again But then I lost her

And I Tried to love again But then I lost her to

I Found that love was no longer a friend of mine

And thats why love ~~is~~ wont Be mine

It just wont let me win in life

So I wont love anymore in this life

I would only Be wise not to try to love

For Everytime I Do I Lose

So Maybe love is For You
But Its Sure Not For me
So I Guess It would be ok if someone would finally love me
And I could give ~~love~~ a try ~~;~~ one more time
