Prison Brutality

Brutality isn't only happening on the streets - It's #1 inside these walls - Prison being labeled as a "safe" place or a "safe" haven is fictitious - The pervert staff perpetually pollute the environment with their indivious energy - Authority is often abused here and people don't comprehend how to be in authority - The environment is perverse, the pervert staff don't exert positivity or skills or learning mechanisms to help us: instead they exert violence - The rogue staff prey on the weak, those who don't have family or any know how in utilizing their tools of defense + grievance system, or those who don't know to go talk to someone about the brutality - Searching for the weakest link is what they do - Brutality isn't only executed physically yet there is mental brutality + emotional brutality - Especially in institutions that hold mentally challenged inmates - These people abuse their authority because they want power + control - Most work here for all the wrong reasons - The color of their suit and title excite them so they go about seeing whom they may devour each and every day - Who they can execute their frustrations on today - Hate crimes are committed daily in these prisons - People don't know this + most may not think it's real yet it's factual - I have witnessed people get beat bloody and to the ground - Eyes Swollen, busted lips, broken ribs, arms, legs, teeth knocked out yet it all be covered up ~~that~~ merely by hiding one away in solitary to keep the hideous results of their pervert actions a secret - Tell the family the person denied their visit - Refuse the wounded medical action and lie to the warden, if the warden isn't in on it - The blood pulp is thrown away like trash until they begin to heal - Sad Shame but a true story - Why can't these rogue people be professional at all times?? It's too much like right - To them right is wrong and committing wrong / wrongfully acts is right - If they were to actually do their job, it's doing too much - Shocking thing is, they want us to obey them and follow rules to the "T" - What's going on here? I'm confused - Lead by example -

The displayed behaviors is suppose to be a positive example - Yet the younger generation gobble what they see, "violence" - People are mistreated hit on, starved, beat and preyed on in these prisons - Noone is looking at these advocates of the devil, but pointing fingers at the inmate population -

We don't do the right thing because we don't see the right thing to do - Those straight from TLC or has never been taught or show how this prison system works only see "violence" from this pervert staff - Today I witnessed a young girl 21 yrs young being jumped on by all white staff, yes she was black - Men hitting her in her face etc - A man shouldn't be putting his hand on a woman, especially a Overgrown man hitting on a child - Hitting her with a closed fist - Yet these are men/women of authority - People in the free world should know what really go on behind the walls of these pervert prisons with these pervert rough staff members -

Here in Texas, the Texas Department of Criminal Justice or shall I say of injustice things are getting worse by the second - Nothing is getting better - I will always stand for what's right and I will stop at nothing when it comes to exposing these advocates of the devil - Free my people.
