"The Minorities"

November 1, 2023

The Minorities are judged unjustly
The System Was formed against us
Lack of finances puts us at a disadvantage
Representation is not accurate as it should be
The Corrupted System is just a business
Dreams became nightmares over time
Experience will teach you trust is not given
The heart became a bulletproof shell
The Man in the Mirror becomes his own best friend
As the Clock ticks and the tunnel become dark
It's like they shut the door and locked the hatch
Innocent and proven guilty is Only for The Minorities
