

My Mind

I've made it up -

But, then again, I've changed it, quite often...

I've kept it active

I've rested it

I've had things "ease" it...

I've had things "weighing," heavily, upon it...

It's gone "absent," once in awhile

And has even "wandered off..." (Occasionally.)

I have, sometimes, employed it to play, eponyms, "games"

I've ingested substances which have - in a quite mysterious manner - "altered" it...

I have, very nearly, "lost" it a time or two...

I routinely - and allegedly - use it to "reason" with...

It would seem, verily, the most important thing I possess. simply couldn't function without it.

Yet, after all this time,
All this deeply troubled time...

I've still Absolutely no
Freakin' idea...

what it is.
